Dear Bill:

It pleases me very much to accept your invitation to be a guest speaker at CIA Headquarters. I view this as an excellent opportunity to talk about the competitive challenges facing the U.S. auto industry and, specifically, General Motors.

Of the preferred dates you offered, June 11 is ideal, since I will be in Washington on other business that day. And even if I had not already made plans to be in town, I would decline your generous offer to provide an honorarium and cover travel expenses because I consider this to be a legitimate business forum for GM.

In regard to setting my itinerary, I have asked Dave Gosler of our Public Relations Staff to contact  your Dean of Conferences.

In the meantime, I will be looking forward to seeing you June 11.

Sincerely,
